Kapitan Keling Mosque

The majestic dome and finely crafted turrets and minaret of this early 19th century mosque is a landmark of the Muslim community. Founded by the Indian Muslim leader Cauder Mohudeen, the mosque stands proud at Jalan Mesjid Kapitan Keling (Mesjid Kapitan Keling Road).

Khoo Kongsi

The clan association that dates back to 1906 is a breathtaking display of ornate and intricate Chinese architecture, motifs and sculptures. This outstanding feature of Lebuh Cannon (Cannon Street) makes an inspiring attraction for shutterbugs.

Satay

Succulent boneless cuts of meat marinated with spices and prepared to perfection over an open charcoal burner. Best relished with a side-dish of spicy peanut sauce and freshly sliced cucumber and onions. A traditional Malay favourite, satay is also an extremely popular choice among the other Malaysian races.
